

The Daily Courant.

Friday, December 19. 1707.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 24.

Naples, November 29.

A Citation is affix'd on the Gates of our Archbishop's Palace; by which the Imperial Minifters are commanded, within 3 Days to fet at Liberty Don Giovanni Torres, late Secretary to the Duke of Escalona; he being an Ecclesiastical Person, and detain'd in Prison contrary to the immunities of the Church. Yesterday in the Evening sail'd from hence the Ship of the deceas'd Pepetumo, with 5 large Tartans, having on Board 1000 Germans commanded by General Wezel; 'tis said they are bound for some Places on the Coast of Tuscany belonging to the Crown of Spain, whose Inhabitants are supposed to be well affe'd to King Charles.

Naples, Nov. 30. 'Tis rumour'd that there has been a Conference between the Governors of Messina and Reggio at Canna, and that there is ground to believe that Messina will revolt to the House of Austria.

Rome, Decemb. 3. On a Report that several thousand Germans are order'd to take Quarters in the Territories of Bologna and Ferrara, the Pope wrote to Count Thaur at Naples; but the Count answer'd that he had nothing to do with the Troops in Lombardy, and that his Holiness should apply to the Generalissimo Prince Eugene of Savoy. The Vassals of the Duke of Sora in the Kingdom of Naples sent Complaints to Count Thaur of the Damages they suffer by the Imperial Soldiers Quarter'd upon them, and protested that if they were not reliev'd they would not answer for the Consequences; the Count return'd Answer, that he would send some more Troops to Sora to keep the said Vassals quiet if not easie. From this Answer 'tis Conjectur'd, that the Imperialists suspect the Duke of Sora of Disaffection to the present Government. In the Stores of the Castle of St. Angelo about 100 Barrels of Powder have been found empty, and several Soldiers are taken up who are suspected to have stoln and made away with the Powder.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 10.

Vienna, Dec. 26. Count Thaur, who was made Vice-roy of Naples provisionally only, has procur'd that Dignity to be conferr'd upon him absolutely by King Charles; and the Emperor has conform'd to his Brother's Pleasure in that Respect.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 23.

Rome, Dec. 3. The Duke of Ari, Brother of Cardinal Aquaviva, is arriv'd in this City, to confer with the Duke d' Uzeda and Cardinal de la Tremouille. 'Tis talk'd he will make a Journey to France. On Monday last a Congregation of State was held, in which it was resolv'd not to allow any Foreign Troops to take Winter-Quarters in the Territories of the Church; necessary Orders thereupon are sent to the frontier Places; and it appears that this Court designs, if Need be to make use both of temporal Arms and of the Ecclesiastical Censures, to hinder any such Troops from taking such Quarters.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 24.

Bologna, Dec. 6. We have Advice, that the Duke of Modena has caus'd a Bridge to be laid over the Panaro; and that 500 German Horse and 300 Foot are to pass that River and march for Naples; some say that those Forces will be follow'd by more.

Venice, Dec. 2. Letters from Lombardy tell us, that 2 Imperial Regiments of Horse are come to Parma, and that 'tis believ'd they are design'd to march to Naples and to be follow'd by 1500 Foot; 'tis also said they are to Winter in the Ecclesiastical State, and to proceed in the Spring to Naples. From Modena they write, that the Duke of that Name has caus'd 20000 Muskets all of a size and 20000 Cloaths to be provided, to be distributed as is pretended to his Country Militia; but some are of Opinion another Design is on the Anvil, the rather because there is a very close Correspondence between that Duke and the Court of Vienna. The said Duke has banish'd out of his Dominions several Ecclesiastical Persons of good Families, because they shew'd themselves to be much in the French Interest when they were Matters of his Country.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 10.

Leghorne, Nov. 18. The Sufarna, Zealand Privateer, has brought in hither 98 Turks, which she took in a Bark of Tripoli that carry'd 8 Guns and some Parareroes, after a Fight in which 9 Turks and 4 of the Zealander's Crew were kill'd. Of 6 Christian Slaves that were on board the Bark, 1 was kill'd: The other 5 are to be kept in the Hospital 40 Days, and then be set at Liberty. 'Tis talk'd the Procurator Souvranno will buy the Turks, to employ them in his Gallies; Some small Vessels arm'd by Persons in the Interest of King Philip of Spain, being cruising in our Sea, M. Pallavicini a Savoyard has caus'd a Ship of 48 Guns to be fitted out at Porto Venere, to give them Chace. 4 Gallies of the Duke of Turin's Squadron are laid up here, and 6 others are gone for Genoa to be laid up there this Winter.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 17.

Ratisbon, Dec. 8. Yesterday a Memorial of the Circle of Swabia was publicly read in the Diet: In which they represented the great Calamities that befell them the beginning of the last Campaign, and the extraordinary Damage the Enemy had done to their Country; that the French by the Diversion made in Provence and by other Means were oblig'd to retire to the Rhine, but that it would not be difficult for them to attack and force the new made Lines, unless Care was taken in Time to have every thing in a Readiness to defend them; that hitherto, instead of 120000 Men, of which the Army of the Empire ought to consist, only 30000 had been brought into the Field, and those unprovided with a Military Chest; that the said Circle of Swabia, notwithstanding they had all along exerted themselves, and do so still, beyond their Ability, yet would not fail to furnish their Contingent to whatsoever Resolution the Diet should take for carrying on the War on the Upper Rhine with Vigour; that they would fill up their 8 Regiments of Horse and Foot; and that they hop'd the rest of the Germanick Body would not let their said Circle be expos'd agen to the Enemy's Army the ensuing Spring.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 22.

Ratisbon, Dec. 12. The 9th Instant the College of Princes had under Deliberation the taking into the Service of the Empire the 6000 Saxon Horse, and the furnishing the Military Chest with the Sum requir'd. The Opinions of the Deputies on these 2 Points were various; some said, that in Case every State of the Empire would furnish their Contingent according to the Resolution of the Diet formerly pass'd, there would be no Occasion either to hire these Saxons or any other foreign Troops; and besides they urg'd it would be much better for them to augment their own Troops than to hire others. Several Deputies seconded this last Proposition, arguing that the Allies would be very much encourag'd by seeing such an Augmentation made. Some Circles

Circles and States declar'd themselves willing however to consent to the taking into Service the 6000 Saxon Horse; if they should be judg'd necessary. On this Occasion the Minister of the Elector of Hanover did in his Master's Name press the Diet to come speedily to a final Resolution about the reinforcing of the Army of the Empire and the establishing a Military Chest; adding, that the best Satisfaction they could give the Queen of Great-Britain and the States General, and the best Service they could do the Empire, would be to augment their Forces and fill the Military Chest. The States of Bavaria declar'd, that they would forthwith send to Francfort their Contingent towards that Chest; and those of the Circles of Franconia, Swabia, and the Upper Rhine, made the like Declaration. But yet no final Resolution was taken upon the 2 Points in Question.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 16.

Liege, Dec. 16. 'Tis said that after New-Year's Day, the King of France will hold a great Council to consider the Declaration made by the Duke of Vendome that he is unwilling to make the next Campaign in the Netherlands, unless he be allow'd an unlimited Commission to act as he shall judge best on all Opportunities that may offer.
